Returned with compliments.

Mr. Ananthoramia has to devote his full attention to the work of rural rationing. Statistics are to be coordinated and the work systematised. The matter is of paramount importance and urgency. He will have to be in readiness to ~~xxxxxx~~ move to districts whenever required at short notice. Moreover there is no vacancy in the Central Office to which he can be attached, and even if there were, asking him to attend to two jobs will not result in efficiency. One of our officers is almost permanently away in Hyderabad and no acting arrangements have been made or proposed. I am of the opinion that it is essential to extend his term by two months, as by then the work may be placed on a solid basis.

Director of Food Supplies.

10) Dr. Anantaramaiah's term as Rural Rationing Officer may be extended by another two months at least, in order that the work now actually done may be consolidated and placed on a sound footing & the complaints of inadequate supplies & irregular distribution relating to rural areas
